Last Date to Register for CLAT 2022; Exam on June 19

Mrinaal Datt · 14 Mar 2022

The Consortium of CLAT has released a new notification relating to the postponement of CLAT 2022. According to the press release, CLAT 2022 has been postponed to Sunday, 19th June, 2022.

Previously the exam was scheduled for May 8, 2022.

While the notification does not state the reason for the same, it makes sense to infer that the same has been done due to the clash with the Class 12 Board exams.

Further, the application submission has also been extended till May 9, 2022.

To register for CLAT 2022, visit the website of the Consortium here.
