CLAT 2025 Results Announced!

In a rather surprising move, the CLAT Consortium has released the final answer key and the CLAT 2025 results before the timeline given in its press release.

This comes right after a petition was filed in the Supreme Court alleging procedural lapses in the conduct of the examination.

CLAT 2025 Results

The Consortium of National Law Universities released the final answer key for CLAT 2025, following the review of objections submitted by candidates against the provisional answer key.

The Common Law Admission Test 2025 (CLAT 2025) was held on December 1, 2024, from 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM at 141 test centers spread across 25 states and 4 union territories in India. The Consortium of National Law Universities completed the score tabulation and verification process on December 5 and 6, 2024.

These scores were subsequently reviewed and approved by the Consortium’s Executive Committee and Governing Body on December 7, 2024.

How to Check CLAT 2025 Result?

Candidates can access and download their CLAT 2025 scorecards by logging into their accounts on the official portal of the Consortium.

The highest mark secured in CLAT 2025 UG is 103.5.

The highest mark secured in CLAT 2025 PG is 80.

Further details of the admissions and counselling process will be notified on December 9, 2024 at 4:00 PM.

Grievance Redressal Committee Constituted

To ensure transparency and fairness, the Consortium has constituted a Grievance Redressal Committee chaired by Justice G. Raghuram, a former judge of the Andhra Pradesh High Court and ex-Director of the National Judicial Academy.

The committee will address any grievances candidates may have regarding the CLAT 2025 examination process.

Grievance Submission Process

The grievance portal will open at noon on December 8, 2024. Candidates must follow these steps to file a grievance:

1. Log in to their CLAT account.
2. Select the “Submit Grievance” option.
3. Provide a detailed description of their issue (maximum 1,000 characters).
4. Upload supporting documents as evidence.
5. Complete and submit the declaration form.

Grievances submitted via email, support tickets, or phone calls will not be entertained.
