CLAT 2026 Round 2 Counselling: Freeze, Float and Exit Options

After the second seat allotment, candidates must choose one of the following options within the confirmation window:

Freeze

Candidates satisfied with their allotted seat may opt for Freeze.

- Seat is confirmed and becomes final
- Candidate will not be considered for further allotment rounds
- University fee must be paid within the stipulated deadline

Float

Candidates seeking an upgrade to a higher preference may select Float.

- Current allotted seat remains secured
- Candidate remains eligible for upgradation in subsequent rounds
- Admission continues automatically if no upgrade is offered

Exit

Candidates who do not wish to continue with the counselling process may choose Exit.

- Candidate exits CLAT 2026 counselling
- Refund of counselling fee is processed as per applicable rules

Candidates should choose the option carefully, as it directly affects their admission status.
