BLOGS

Call for #MyCLATStory- Share your Journey with CLATalogue

Ruchika Mohapatra · 23 Jun 2023

"Sometimes the journey is even better than the destination!"

Every aspirant, every law student, and every lawyer has a story of how they came to choose law as a profession. They all have their own versions of #MyCLATStory that captures their venture into law school.

Team CLATalogue invites students who have cleared the CLAT and are currently enrolled in college or have already graduated to submit their journey through law school. Tell us about your journey to and through law school and help us share your #CLATStory with other aspirants.

This initiative seeks to collate interesting takes on people preparing for the same examination but with different resources, motivations, and stories.

If you or someone you know has an interesting tale to share or have had a great time discovering your passion while at law school, fill up this Google Form and let our readers know about it!

Here are a few of the stories that we have published till date!

1. #MyCLATStory- Titiksha from NLUO shares her Journey from Bhopal to Bollywood!
2. #MyCLATStory- Kashika Lath [AIR 125] Shares her Preparation Tips for CLAT
3. #MyCLATStory- To Dream is to Dare

For any more details, please reach out to ruchika.mohapatra@lawctopus.com.

Click here to submit your #CLATStory