Taking the CLAT 2020? Subscribe to BRIEF, CLATapult's Crash Course: Registrations Open

Aditya Anand · 03 Apr 2020

CLATapult, founded in 2012 was the brainchild of three Undergraduate Program students of NUJS and has since come to be a pioneering name amongst law aspirants across the country.

With the aim to help these 'aspirants' take a solid step towards their dream law school, CLATapult has had several students joining the top national law schools in the country. Ever since its inception, CLATapult has experienced remarkable positive growth in its enrolment figures, complemented by performance by its students.

CLAT preparations can be tricky. However, help is at hand (it's right here, right now actually). CLATapult Crash Course, the Brief, is the last stepping stone in your pursuit to a premier National Law University.

CLATapult provides with everything that you require for your last-minute preparation.

Course Highlights

- More than 170+ hours of learning, with online video classroom sessions.
