Why someone should apply

We're ALL inherently kind and compassionate beings – qualities we've exhibited in so many big and small ways right from the time that we were children. If you look back, we're sure you'll remember so many such instances of your own!

But you'll also agree that sometimes, as we grow older, we may not do it as consciously anymore. Volunteering for a good cause is such a great way to reconnect with the truest part of ourselves!

And if you'd like to volunteer with CRY, we have an incredible online volunteering program that you should totally sign up for this programme.
