BLOGS

Common Idioms And Phrases For LSAT

Aparna Shukla · 27 Sep 2021

Given below are the common idioms and phrases for LSAT (Law School Admission Test) and other law entrance examinations. This is not an exhaustive list but includes important idioms. It is advised that Idioms or vocabulary cannot be developed in one day and requires consistent efforts. You should try to learn at least 5 new idioms daily and use them in sentences.

Happy Reading!

Idioms and Meanings

1. Ruffle Feathers: Annoy someone
2. To get cold feet: to get Afraid
3. No stone unturned: Using all available means
4. In a nutshell: Simple and Brief
5. Knit the brow: To frown
6. to pour oil on troubled water: to rectify the matter
7. Hitting below the belt: unfair strike
8. Hand in glove: close collusion
9. Beating the air: Making useless efforts
10. A dime a dozen: Very common
11. Hit the road: Begin the journey
12. Stand to one’s guns: Refuse to change something
13. Playing fast and loose: Behaving irresponsibly
14. To kill two birds with one stone’– to solve two problems at once
15. Break a leg’ – good luck
16. Flying pigs: Impossible to happen
17. The elephant in the room: The main/ obvious problem
18. Piece of cake: Something very easy

19. Hit the books: to study
20. Break-even: No gain No Loss
21. Butter up: Flattering someone
22. Once in a blue moon: Very rarely
23. Nip in the bud: Destroy at the initial stage
24. Settling the dust: Calming the situation
25. Being as cold as stone: Being rude or unemotional
26. Castle in the sky: Impossible/ Daydream
27. Wry face: Disappointed look
28. The tough nut to crack: A difficult problem
29. To burn the midnight oil: To work up to late hours
30. Flash in the pan.: One that promises great success but fails
31. Chicken hearted: Cowardly
32. Good wine needs no bush: Advertising is not needed for good things.
33. Red-letter day: a pleasantly noteworthy or memorable day
34. Raining cats and dogs: raining very heavily
35. To have feet of clay: full of faults
36. Rhyme or reason: Rational cause
37. Cock and bull story: the untrue story
38. A bolt from the blue: Unexpected
39. Whole nine yards: All of it
40. Tight Spot: Difficult situation

First published on November 18, 2020.