BLOGS

Important Tips for CLAT 2023

Sanya Ambastha · 15 Dec 2022

With CLAT 2023 just 2 days away, here's what you need to keep in mind as you prepare for this exam. These important tips for CLAT 2023 will come in handy as you write the exam:

First things first: Get all the details right!

- CLAT 2023 Exam Date: 18 December 2022 [Offline Mode]
- CLAT Exam Timing: 2 PM to 4 PM
- Print out your admit card, if you haven't already.
- Check and recheck the address of your test center. If it is entirely unfamiliar, try to visit the center one day before, to figure out its exact location.
- Carry a valid ID card with you.
- Print out and fill the Self-Declaration form beforehand as well.
- Read the instructions mentioned on the Admit Card properly. Do not skip that.

At the Test Centre

- Carry a Blue/Black ballpoint pen, transparent bottle, face mask.
- Don't wear Digital Watches. Instead, wear an accurate analog one.
- Do not carry a mobile phone with you.
- Don't bring any books to the test center, keep your mind relaxed and calm. Last minute studying could be more harmful than beneficial.
- Reach the center at least 30-45 minutes before the exam starts. Leave a buffer period for any traffic you may encounter.
- Check your room number properly, to avoid any last-minute rush.

Important Dos and Don'ts for CLAT 2023

- Handle the OMR sheet with care. Ensure that it is not torn.

- Leave a few minutes at the end for revision, and to attempt questions you didn't get correct on the first try.
- Keep the negative marking in mind as you attempt questions.
- Fill in the bubbles on the OMR properly.
- Don't answer two options for one question.
- Stay calm and focused. Don't get distracted by the new surroundings of the test center.
- Drink water if you feel stressed, keep yourself hydrated.

All the best!

Check out our post on improving your CLAT score here.