Lawctopus' CLAT Lab 2026: 3-Month Long Advanced CLAT Prep [Sep 1 - Nov 30]: Enrol by Aug 10!

Ruchika Mohapatra · 15 Jul 2025

Looking to crack CLAT 2026? Lawctopus' CLAT Lab 2026 is your one-stop prep course, covering everything from Reading Comprehension, Legal Reasoning to GK, with expert-led sessions, concise reading material, smart strategies, and loads of practice.

Our 3-month long courses also comes with 2-day long workshops every month on Speed Reading and Memory Techniques, two skills we believe give a strong edge to our students.

A key feature of our course is that it's designed and delivered by people who have themselves aced CLAT (UG and PG exams), and have known the exam since it was first introduced in 2008.

CLAT 2026 is scheduled for December 2025, and the countdown has begun.

The competition is fierce, the syllabus is vast, and the pressure? It's real. That's why your preparation needs to be solid, strategic, and structured from day one.

Our CLAT Lab Course is your all-in-one guide for the next 3 months. Whether you're starting fresh or looking to level up, this course combines expert teaching, regular mocks, in-depth analysis, and consistent mentorship to keep you focused and ahead of the curve. Let's make these next few months count and get you into your dream law school.

About the CLAT 2026 Exam

The Common Law Admission Test (CLAT) 2026 is your gateway to India's top National Law Universities (NLUs) and, for many, a dream come true. Scheduled for December 2025, this national-level exam is the stepping stone to a legal career filled with possibilities, purpose, and prestige.

But let's be honest: CLAT is tough. With over 75,000+ aspirants every year and only a few hundred seats in the top 5 NLUs, the competition is intense. The paper tests not just your knowledge, but your ability to read, think, and respond quickly under pressure.

Here's what you'll face in CLAT 2026:

- English Language: Reading comprehension, vocabulary in context, grammar, and tone analysis.
- Legal Reasoning: Understanding principles, applying logic to legal situations, and staying updated with current legal issues.
- Logical Reasoning: Argument-based questions, critical thinking, inference-making, and puzzles.
- Quantitative Techniques: Class 10-level arithmetic, data interpretation, and number-based problem-solving.
- General Knowledge & Current Affairs: Static GK and a strong grip on current events, especially legal and political updates.

It's not about rote learning or mugging up facts. It's about understanding patterns, thinking clearly, and managing time smartly. Which is exactly why a focused and well-structured preparation plan is non-negotiable.

About the Course

Preparing for CLAT 2026? This is your moment, and we're here to walk every step with you.

The CLAT Lab 2026 Course by Lawctopus is a 5-month, power-packed journey designed to take the guesswork and overwhelm out of your prep.

This 3-month online crash course (September 1 - November 30) is designed to be your one-stop solution for CLAT prep.

No confusion, no distractions! Just a clear roadmap, expert guidance, and powerful practice.

Here's what you'll get:

- 60+ Live Online Sessions (5 sessions per week, each lasting for 1.5-2 hours): One session each for Legal, Logical, English, Quant, and GK. These sessions cover everything from concept clarity and question-solving to exam strategies.
 - 10+ Weekly Practice Tests (50 Questions per test) to help you revise what you learn each week and keep your momentum strong.
 - 15 Full-Length Mock Tests that simulate the real CLAT, including 4 mocks in the critical month of November. Each mock test contains 200 questions closely mirroring the CLAT pattern
 - 500+ Sectional and Topic-wise Tests containing a question bank of nearly 5000 questions for targeted practice across all subjects.
- Concise Reading Material (700+ pages) after every session with concept notes, solved examples, and extra practice questions.
 - Monthly Workshops of Speed Reading and Memory Techniques: Through our techniques, our learners gain a 10-12 minute advantage during the CLAT exam. This advantage is huge! They also gain an advantage of doubling their preparation speed. Basically your chances of cracking the exam are double with just these monthly workshops!

Each week is designed for progress: Learn in the live classes, test your understanding through a weekly practice test, and clear your doubts in discussion sessions. You'll feel your skills growing week by week, test by test.

Whether you're just starting out or you've been preparing for a while, this course gives you the structure, feedback, and motivation you need to go from "I hope I make it" to "I've got this."

Key Components of the CLAT 2026 Course

At Lawctopus, we've designed this course to not just teach you the syllabus but to walk with you, step by step, through every stage of your CLAT 2026 preparation journey. Here's what makes this course your complete prep solution:

1. Foundation Workshop to Set the Right Tone

The course begins with an intensive 3-4 day Foundation Workshop, which is designed to orient and energize you for the journey ahead. This workshop covers:

- A detailed breakdown of the CLAT 2026 pattern and how to approach it smartly
- How to craft a personalized and effective preparation strategy
- Introduction to speed reading techniques to handle comprehension-heavy sections efficiently
- Memory techniques that help with long-term retention of key facts, concepts, and case-based information

This workshop lays the foundation for a disciplined, high-impact preparation.

2. 100+ Live Online Sessions (5 Sessions per Week)

Over the course of six months, you will attend more than 100 live sessions led by expert faculty. The structure includes:

- Five sessions each week, one for each subject: Legal Reasoning, Logical Reasoning, English Language, Quantitative Techniques, and General Knowledge
- Each session is 90 to 120 minutes long, offering deep dives into concepts, regular question-solving, and strategy discussions
- Focus on building conceptual clarity, solving exam-level questions, and understanding time-saving techniques
- Recordings of all sessions will be made available to ensure you can revise at your pace or catch up if you miss a class

3. Weekly Practice and Testing: 10+ Weekly Tests

At the end of each week, you will attempt a weekly practice test designed to evaluate your understanding of that week's content. These tests help you:

- Reinforce and revise newly learned topics
- Monitor your progress consistently
- Build test-taking stamina and confidence

Each test is followed by a doubt-clearing and discussion session, where strategies are shared, common errors are addressed, and individual doubts are resolved.

4. 500+ Sectional and Topic-Wise Tests for Focused Practice

To complement the full-length tests, the course includes access to a bank of 5000+ questions distributed across 500+ sectional and topic-wise tests. These allow you to:

- Focus on specific weak areas—be it current affairs, legal principles, logical reasoning sets, or quantitative techniques
- Repeatedly practice high-yield and frequently asked topics
- Identify your strengths and consistently work on gaps in your preparation

5. 15 Full-Length Mock Tests Simulating the Real CLAT

Over six months, you will attempt 15 full-length CLAT mock tests, which are carefully designed to simulate the actual exam experience:

- Each mock contains 200 questions across all five sections, replicating the real test format and difficulty level
- A minimum of 2 mocks per month, with 4 focused mocks in November to ensure peak performance just before the exam
- Detailed performance analysis and discussion for every mock to help you reflect, improve, and fine-tune your strategy

6. Monthly Workshops on Speed Reading and Memory Techniques

One of the unique features of the course is our focus on accelerated learning techniques. Each month, you will attend a 2-day refresher workshop focusing on:

- Speed reading to improve comprehension and reading pace
- Memory techniques to retain facts and concepts for the long term

These workshops provide you with a significant time advantage during the actual exam, our students gain anywhere from 10 to 12 minutes, which can be the difference between qualifying and missing the cut-off. They also double your preparation speed, enhancing your overall efficiency and confidence.

7. Concise Reading Material for Every Session

After each live class, you will receive carefully curated reading material, including:

- Concept notes that simplify difficult topics
- Solved examples that reinforce learning
- Additional practice questions for extra drill

This material is designed to help you revise quickly and build a strong conceptual foundation across all subjects.

8. One-Year Access to Course Content and Resources

Although the course is designed to be completed in six months, you will have access to all course content, including:

- Live class recordings

- Practice tests and mock tests
- Reading material and resources

The course access is given for a full year, allowing you to revise at your pace and revisit important lessons even after the live sessions conclude.

3 Additional Components (The Edge You Didn't Know You Needed)

9. Monthly meet-up with CLAT toppers

Meet CLAT toppers in a closed-group interaction every month. Learn from their journeys! These are informal journeys which bring perspective and camaraderie to CLAT preparation.

10. Preparing for Surprises

While our course structure is rigorous and standard, we help our learners prepare through any surprises CLAT might throw at them.

11. Preparing for Success in the Legal Career

A 2-day workshop (3 hour long workshop) on 'Law as a Career', a week-long Moot Court Competition, and week-long Paper Presentation Competition will ensure that the students are primed for success in law school and their careers after graduation.

What Does a Typical Week Look Like?

Each week is carefully designed to balance learning, practice, and revision:

- Learn new concepts in the live sessions
- Practice through sectional tests and weekly assessments
- Reinforce learning with concise reading material
- Clarify doubts in regular discussion sessions

- Track your progress and make improvements continuously

This rhythm keeps your preparation structured, dynamic, and progress-oriented.
