Answers

1. D - Judicial decisions

Explanation: Under Article 38 of the ICJ Statute, judicial decisions are only subsidiary means for determining international law. They assist in identifying rules but do not themselves create binding law.

2. B - Erga omnes

Explanation: Obligations erga omnes are owed to the international community as a whole, such as prohibitions on genocide or slavery, recognised in Barcelona Traction.

3. B - Monism

Explanation: Monism treats international and municipal law as a single legal system, making international law binding regardless of domestic constitutional arrangements.

4. C - Constituent instruments and functions

Explanation: International organisations derive legal personality from their founding treaties and assigned functions, as affirmed in Reparation for Injuries.

5. C - Restrictive immunity

Explanation: Modern international law limits State immunity to sovereign acts (jure imperii), excluding commercial acts (jure gestionis).

6. C - State practice plus opinio juris

Explanation: Customary law forms only when consistent State practice is accompanied by a belief that such practice is legally obligatory.

7. C - Soft law

Explanation: Declarations and guidelines guide conduct without binding force and often shape future treaties or customary rules.

8. C - Incompatible with the object and purpose of the treaty

Explanation: The Vienna Convention invalidates reservations that defeat a treaty's core aim, regardless of consent by some States.

9. A - Territorial sovereignty

Explanation: The non-intervention principle flows from sovereign equality, preventing interference in a State's internal affairs.

10. C - International Court of Justice

Explanation: The ICJ is the principal judicial organ of the United Nations, settling disputes between States.

11. B - Enable diplomatic protection

Explanation: Nationality links an individual to a State, allowing that State to espouse international claims on the person's behalf.

12. C - No State recognises a person as its national

Explanation: Statelessness exists where no State considers a person its national under its laws.

13. C - Universal jurisdiction

Explanation: Certain grave crimes may be prosecuted by any State, regardless of where they were committed.

14. C - Hostis humani generis

Explanation: Pirates are treated as "enemies of all mankind," justifying universal jurisdiction.

15. C - UNCLOS

Explanation: The UN Convention on the Law of the Sea codifies maritime zones and navigation regimes.
