AILET

MH CET Law (5 Year LLB) Exam Date Postponed Due To 21 Day Lockdown

Aditya Anand · 28 Mar 2020

COVID 19: MH CET Law (5 Year LLB) Exam Date Postponed Due To 21 Day Lockdown

The MH CET Law Five Year LLB entrance test was scheduled on April 12 and the date to download admit cards was March 27.

Due to the Corona Pandemic and 21-day lockdown, as a precautionary measure, MH CET Law exam date and date of downloading admit card has been postponed.

The new dates are yet to be announced and have not been fixed yet.

A notice was released on the official website.

CET CELL had declared the CET Date for LL.B-5 Yrs. Course on 3rd December2019. The On-Line Application for the Course CET was launched on 21st January 2020 and form filling continued till the midnight of 6th March 2020.

Around 22,398 candidates are expected to appear for the On Line CET scheduled as per original Time Table on Sunday 12th April 2020.

In view of the precautionary measures announced due to outbreak of COVID_19,CET CELL is postponing the MAH LL.B.5 Yrs. CET Examination.

The new schedule of downloading the updated Hall Tickets and Revised Day and Date of the CET Examination will be announced by way of Notice on the CET web page.

All the Parents and the Candidates who have applied for CET are requested to take a note of this.

Read the official notice here.

For more new, visit CLATalogue.