Mooting, moot courts, mooters.

Jessup, Vienna, judges.

Memos, oral arguments, thinking on your feet.

Cover page. Footnotes. Formatting. Prayers.

Mooting captures a law student's attention perhaps like no other co-curricular activity.

Mooting is a highly useful, competitive activity. It helps you develop the core skills of research and writing, argumentation and presentation, and teamwork.

Many excellent mooters land up with top internships and job offers solely on the basis of their mooting capabilities.

Far more importantly, a good moot court competition is a journey towards self-development.

Lawctopus Law Schools presents a unique COURSE (& Competition) that will help you learn the fundamentals and the advanced aspects of mooting.

If you have never mooted, this course will provide you with all the information, knowledge, skills, and experience to participate and excel at various national and international moot courts.

If you have mooted before, this course (and the competition in-built into it) will help you enhance your skills.

This course covers everything about mooting. As a part of this course, the students will actually do a moot competition too! You'll be given a moot problem, be asked to draft a memo, given feedback on that, and then we'll take you to the oral rounds where you get to argue before a judge! And yes, you'll be given feedback during the oral rounds.

Fresh mooters can expect a supportive environment. Experienced mooters can expect some grilling from the judges!

Our Moot COURSE (& Competition) has been designed and built by prize-winning mooters from India who have won top-quality national and international moots. More importantly, they share are genuine joy and passion for mooting, which they want to pass on to you!
