BLOGS

Online Certificate Course on ‘Litigation Basics: Navigating Cases and Files’ by LLS [May 10 – June 10]: Register by May 6!

Adtiya Aryan · 25 Apr 2024

Case Briefs

court proceeding

E-courts website,

About Lawctopus Law School

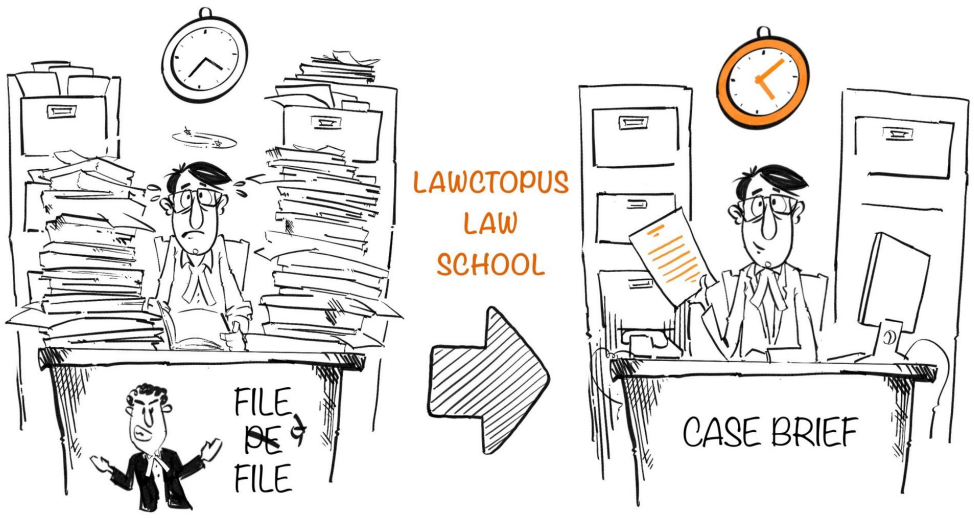

Lawctopus Law School

1400+ law students,

92/100

About the ‘Litigation Basics: Navigating Cases and Files’ Course

Learn a critical skill to be of great help to your senior lawyer and the Hon’ble judges!

What happens when you are out of law school and inside a courtroom? How do you transform from a law student to a competent litigator?

become an asset to your workplace convert bulky case files into short case notes/summaries.

stand out and contribute immensely to your office!

good impression on the judges

Register for this online course by clicking here.

How will the Course help you?

- You will learn the skill of properly reading Case Files which are the foundation of legal practice.
- Condense the Case Files into proper, extremely useful notes.
- Be your senior’s favourite intern/junior!
- Make you well-versed in the proceedings of a court.
- Become extremely useful to Hon’ble judges!
- Be well-prepared in court but also help ease the burden of your seniors.

- Be deemed fit as a team player, quickly gaining the trust of your seniors and getting meaningful work.

Syllabus

Module 1 – Introduction

– Get introduced to the Course – You will learn about the level of preparedness of an Advocate in a Courtroom on the Judge who is hearing the case.

Module 2 – Courtroom 101

– You will be acquainted with the basics of functioning of a Courtroom. – Bain an insight into the various stages of court proceedings (both civil and criminal cases). – Know what is the right nomenclature to be used for parties in litigation. – How to use the *E-Courts Websites to check case status, previous orders as well as cause lists. – Get introduced to the concept and significance of case files.

Module 3 – Introduction to Case Files

– What to prepare for before starting to create court briefs. – Delve deeper into case files by discerning their arrangement – Know the difference between a lawyer's case file & a Judge's case file and how to start reading them properly – Explore the meaning of notes/briefs, their utility, relevance, and significance to a lawyer

Module 4 – Sample Templates and Repository

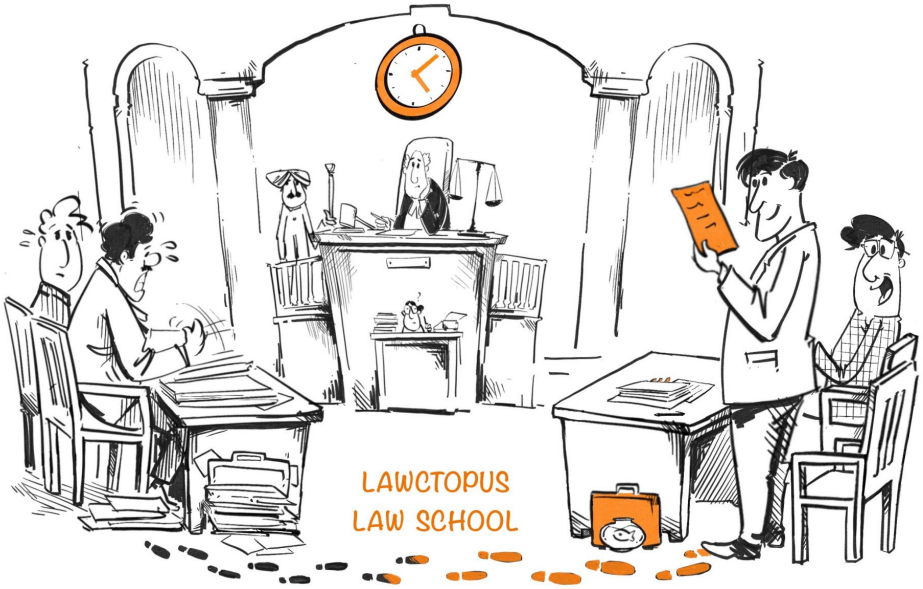

– Comprehensively go through various kinds of briefs/notes that can be prepared – Learn from various sample templates – Get access to an indicative checklist to help you review your brief, once created – Know the do's and don'ts of making a case brief

Add-on modules:

– Reading resource of Lawctopus Law School's Course on Drafting Bail Applications. – Career Aid webinars on CV making, LinkedIn profile building, and career options in the legal field. Self-Assessments: Each Module carries a set of 5 MCQs for self-assessment enabling you to zero in on your key takeaways from the Module.

Compulsory Assignment

Prepare a brief based on a dummy case file. Get feedback from our subject matter experts!

Register for this online course on 'Litigation Basics: Reading Case Files, Making Case Briefs' by clicking here.

Who is this course for?

- Undergraduate students of law
- Anybody looking to make a career in litigation
- Young lawyers (both litigators and those working in law firms)

Details of the Course

Duration:

Course fee:

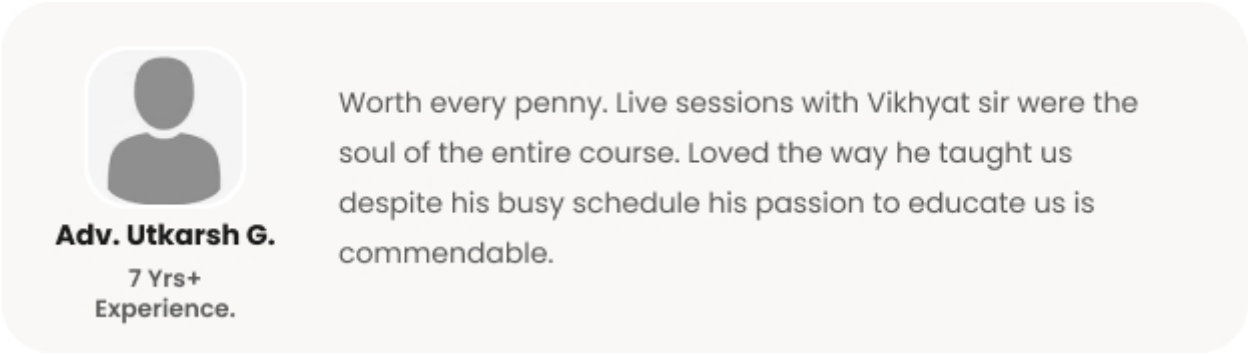

Mode of learning

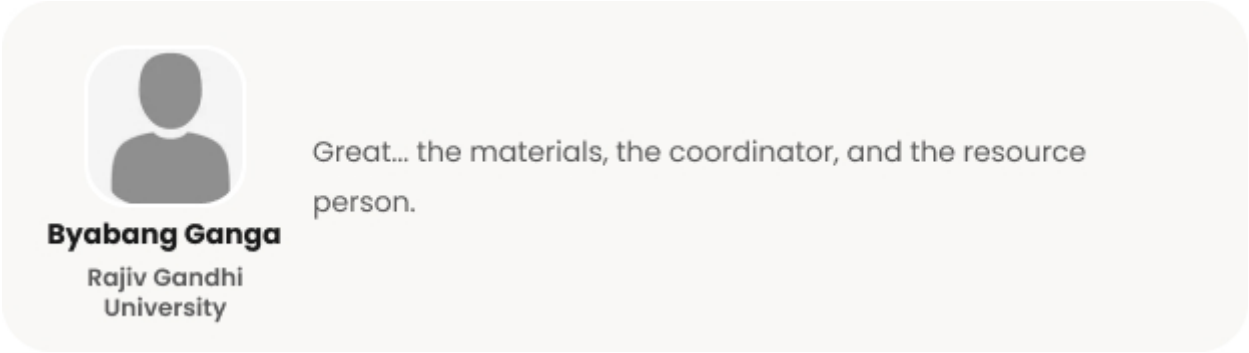

- Completely online and self-paced. (Except for the weekly live sessions. The recordings of the live sessions is also available)

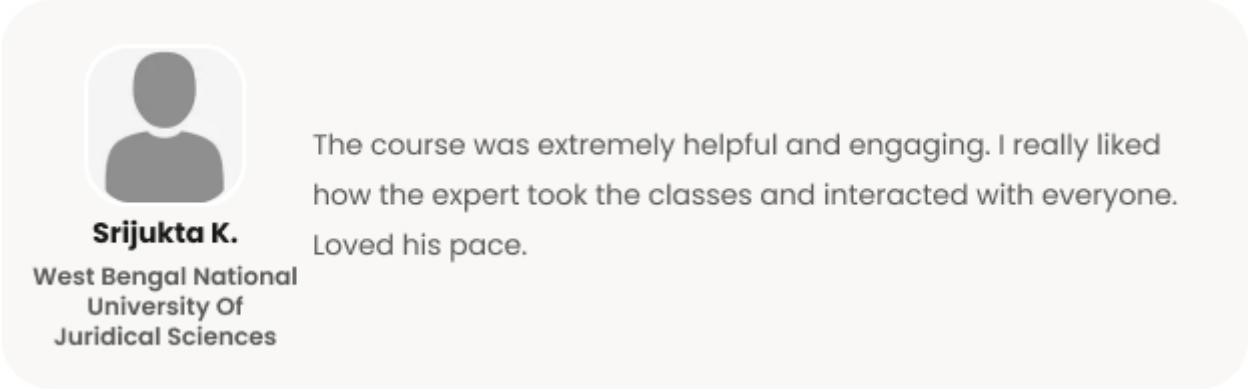

- Recorded video lectures
- 4 live lectures (one/week) that build upon the reading modules and address your doubts
- Text-based modules and reading resources that compress years of learning into a few pages
- Online-based forum to clarify doubts
- A practical compulsory assignment where you ‘learn by doing’
- Personalised feedback on your assignment
- Self-assessment exercises
- Live and exclusive webinars on careers in legal research, CV-building, etc.

Register for this online course on ‘Litigation Basics: Reading Case Files, Making Case Briefs’ by clicking here.

Learners’ Feedback

Need help to decide? Feel free to reach out to us on these channels.

935 968 4056

courses@lawctopus.com

Register for the course here.