Passage

We hold that the capital outlays on the hospital and its operational expenses for providing free treatment and services to the victims should, both on humanitarian considerations and in fulfillment of the offer made before the Bhopal Court, be borne by the UCC and UCIL, We are conscious that it is not part of the function of this Court to reshape the settlement of restructure its terms.

This aspect of the further liability is also not a matter on which the UCC and the UCIL had an opportunity to express their views. However, from the tenor of the written submissions made before the District Court at Bhopal in response to the proposal of the Court for “reconciliatory substantial interim relief” to the gas victims, both the UCC and UCIL had offered to fund and provide a hospital for the gas victims. The UCC had recalled that in January, 1986, it had offered “to fund the construction of a hospital for the treatment of gas victims the amount being contributed by the UCC and the UCIL in equal proportions”. Shri Nariman had also referred to this offer during the submissions in the context of the bona fides of the UCC in that behalf.

It is, no doubt, true that the offer was made in a different context and before an overall settlement. But that should not detract the UCC and the UCIL from fulfilling these obligations as, indeed, the moral sensibilities to the immense need for relief in all forms and ways should make both the UCC and UCIL forthcoming in this behalf. Such a hospital should be fully equipped hospital with provision for maintenance for a period of eight years which in our estimate might together involve the financial outlay of around Rs. 50 crores. We hope and trust that UCC and UCIL will not be found wanting in this behalf.
