A. The Government on Friday announced new guidelines to curb misleading advertisements and endorsers by banning surrogate ads while imposing strict norms for those advertisements that seek to lure consumers by offering discounts and free claims. The new guidelines on “Prevention of Misleading Advertisements and Endorsements for Misleading Advertisements, 2022” also seek to regulate advertisements targeting children.

The guidelines, notified by the Consumer Affairs Ministry and that have come into force with immediate effect, also specify due diligence to be carried out while endorsing in advertisements. Announcing the guidelines, the consumer affairs secretary [1] said: “Advertisements have great interest for consumers. Under the CCPA Act, there are provisions to handle misleading advertisements affecting consumers rights. “But to make it more explicit, clear and aware to the industry, the government has come out with guidelines for fair advertising with effect from today,” he said.
