Directions: In the following question, a legal principle is given along with a set of facts. Apply only the given principle to the facts and choose the correct legal conclusion.

Please apply only the legal principle stated in the question and no other principle outside of this.

Principle: Only the child's father has the capacity to give the child in adoption. Further, any Hindu of sound mind may adopt a child, provided he/she does not already have a child belonging to the same gender.

Facts: Billu is a divorced Hindu farmer in Maharashtra and has a daughter named Sunita. His friend Irrfan, a Muslim, had to leave the state 10 years ago because of extreme financial conditions. There has been no news of him since then. Irrfan's daughter, Razia, was born only one month after he left. Irrfan's wife is now extremely ill and poor, and wants to give Razia in adoption to Billu who has enough means to be able to take care of her. Can Billu adopt Razia?

3. Choose the correct answer from the options given below.

a. No, because Billu being a Hindu cannot adopt from a Muslim family.

b. No. Irrfan's wife cannot give the child in adoption, since only the father is allowed to do so.
