Sectional Based Questions on the Concept of Plea of Alibi for CLAT PG

Aditiya Aryan · 05 May 2026

The plea of alibi is a legal defence strategy in which an accused states that he was at some other place at the time of the commission of the offence, making it impossible for him to have committed the crime. The term “alibi” is a Latin word which means “to be elsewhere.”

When the plea of alibi is raised in criminal proceedings, it is asserted that the crime did occur, but the accused was absent from the place of the offence.

However, the burden of proof does not shift entirely onto the accused; the prosecution must still prove the case beyond reasonable doubt. Section 11 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 deals with the concept of the plea of alibi. It must be established convincingly.
