Answer Key with Detailed Explanations

Q. No.	Answer	Explanation
1	A	Hans Kelsen developed the Pure Theory of Law, which separates law from morality and emphasizes a normative structure rooted in a Grundnorm.
2	C	H.L.A. Hart, in The Concept of Law (1961), introduced primary rules (duty-imposing) and secondary rules (rules of recognition, change, adjudication).

3	C	John Austin, a legal positivist, held that law is the command of the sovereign, backed by sanctions.
4	C	Natural Law focuses on inherent moral values that underlie the legal system. Thinkers include Aquinas, Finnis, and Fuller.
5	C	Riggs v. Palmer illustrates Natural Law, where moral principles (no one should benefit from wrongdoing) override the literal statutory rule.
6	A	American Realists like Holmes and Llewellyn argued that law is what judges do in practice, not what statutes say.
7	A	Ulpian, a Roman jurist, defined justice as “the constant and perpetual will to render to every man his due.”
8	B	Friedrich Karl von Savigny, a Historical School proponent, believed law reflects the “Volkgeist” or spirit of the people.
9	D	Kelsen’s Pure Theory excluded sociological factors; it focused strictly on norms and legal structure, not on society or morality.
10	B	Ronald Dworkin’s theory of “law as integrity” argues that judges should interpret the law as expressing a coherent set of moral principles.
