About the UGC NET (JRF) Exam

UGC Net Examination is perhaps the most important exam after students complete their LLM if they wish to pursue a career in academics in India.

Qualifying UGC NETExamination is a mandatory requirement for the grant of a Junior Research Fellowship (JRF) to pursue a PhD and for appointment as Assistant Professor in Law Colleges and Universities across the country.

This Examination tests the Research, Teaching, and knowledge of the respective subject, in which candidates wish to appear in to certify whether they are fit to teach students of Law.

National Testing Agency (NTA) conducts this examination twice a year on behalf of the University Grants Commission (UGC). The syllabus and the structure of the examination have been designed by the UGC.

The Exam is completely objective (MCQ-based Questions) and is conducted at Physical Centres across the country and is computer-based.

There are 2 Papers during the Exam where Paper 1 intends to assess the teaching/ research aptitude of the candidate. It is primarily designed to test the reasoning ability, reading comprehension, divergent thinking, and general awareness of the candidate.

Paper 2 consists of law-based questions.

- Paper 1 has 50 questions and carries 100 marks.
- Paper 2 is based on the subject selected by the candidate (law, in this case) and will assess domain knowledge.
- Paper 2 has 100 questions and carries 200 marks.
