BLOGS

WATCH: Supreme Court Verdict on Same-Sex Marriage in India; Rules Against it by 3-2 Majority

Ruchika Mohapatra · 17 Oct 2023

A five-judge bench headed by Chief Justice of India DY Chandrachud has pronounced the verdict on same-sex marriage today.

Embedded content (not available in the PDF export — view online)

21 pleas were filed by same-sex couples, LGBTQ+ activists and organizations and a five-judge Constitution Bench headed by CJI DY Chandrachud conducted the hearings for the same.

On October 17, 2023, the Supreme Court ruled that there cannot be legal recognition for same-sex marriages, doing so by a 3-2 majority.